Sample bottles of both 10 cents each. Regular The Stephens & Condit Transportation LAR.—A daring crime was perpetrated in size 75 cents. Greenwich street, New York, on Sunday morning. Mr. Noe. Sr., of the firm of James Noe & Sons, brush manufacturers, visited his store at eight o'clock on Sunday morning to see if some valuable property was safe. He was uneasy about this property because access to the premises was then comparatively easy, owing to some building operations adjacent to his store. Hearing a strange noise, Mr. Noe went upstairs and saw a man prying open the scuttle of the roof. Incautiously Mr. Noe sprang at the stranger and a desperate struggle ensued, ending in the burglar battering in Mr. Noe's head with an iron tool, binding his limbs with stout cord, robbing bim of a valuable watch and chain and some money, and making good his escape through the senttle. Mr. Noe was found in this condition by an elderly lady living in an adjoining tentement house, who heard cries of murder and followed the sounds. Mr. Noe was able to give an accurate description of the burglar, and is likely to recover from his wounds, though his skull Furnished, and every attendance given that the is fractured in two or three places.
